

One weed to rule them all...

It may be growing on your property. It could be 12 feet tall and that's just above ground. It is here to invade. To conquer. To rule all.

Knotweed has taken root in significant areas in Eastham. Help us. Learn to identify it. Learn how to control it.

Japanese Knotweed. The worst of the worst. No natural enemies. Hard to control, harder to kill. Sunshine and soil are at its command.
